I am filing a claim for GR benefits. GR is a loan. I understand the County will ask me to repay GR from a Supplemental Security Income (SSI) retroactive award. The County may ask me to repay GR from other money I have, but only after I meet the basic support needs of myself and my family. If I have worked in the General Relief Work Program, that work will be counted to reduce the amount of my repayment obligations.

The reason I am filing a claim is because:

- My GR benefits were denied, discontinued, or reduced without proper notice to me.
- I was improperly denied, discontinued and/or sanctioned for failure to follow a program requirement.
- A County Worker discouraged me from submitting or completing my GR application.
- I was classified as employable, but I was unemployable or conditionally employable.
- I was denied or sanctioned because I quit or was fired from my job before I applied for GR.
- The maximum GR maximum benefit amount was raised by up to $38 per month, for the period August 24, 2010 to June 30, 2012. I want the County to pay me the higher amount.
